Bellevue July. 3rd 1848

my Dear Uncle-

I drop you a line today to say that I shall start tomorrow morning for here Brunswick for ~~the~~ Clemson - and after being there a day or so will go to Philad^a and will take Elizabeth and start for Haledaysburgh - she will accompany us - as far as Lancaster County - you may then look for us towards the close of next week - about the end of it - I was very much shocked to hear of Uncle Sells death - and so sudden too - He will be a great loss to his family and the neighbourhood - with much love to Aunt Betty and the boys - and with the anticipation of much pleasure in seeing you all soon -

I remain -

Yours affectionately

Wm. F. Clemson
